GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

(BHARAT SARKAR)

MINISTRY OF LABOUR

(SHRAM MANTRALAYA)

New Delhi, dated the 1st April, 1977

Notification

S. O. — Whereas the Central Government has, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 13C of the Working Journalists and Other Newspaper Employees (Conditions of Service) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1955 (45 of 1955), constituted by the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour No. S. O. 1958 dated the 11th June, 1975, a Wage Board for the purpose of fixing or revising the rates of wages in respect of non-journalist newspaper employees;

And whereas the said Board continues to function;

And whereas the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary to fix interim rates of wages in respect of non-journalist newspaper employees;

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 13A read with section 13D of the said Act, the Central Government, after consultation with the Board, hereby fixes the interim rates of wages in respect of non-journalist newspaper employees as set out in the Schedule hereto annexed.

THE SCHEDULE

1. The interim rates of wages payable in respect of non-journalist newspaper employees employed to do any work in, or in relation to, the classes of newspaper establishments, specified in column (1) of the Table below shall be the existing rates of wages increased by ad hoc payment of the amounts specified in the corresponding entries in column (2) of the said Table.

THE TABLE

Classes of newspaper establishments						Amount of increase per month
						Rs. Ps.
1						2
Classes of daily newspapers and news agencies
I to IV	85.00
V	50.00
VI	36.50
VII	23.00
Classes of weeklies and other periodicals
I and II	85.00
III	50.00
IV	36.50
V and VI	23.00

Explanation 1. — The expression "existing rates of wages" means basic wages and dearness allowance payable to non-journalist newspaper employees in terms of the recommendations made in Chapter IV of the report of the Wage Board for non-journalist employees of newspaper industry, constituted by the Government of India by Resolution No. WB-17(2)/63 dated the 25th February, 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the former Wage Board), as accepted by that Government by their Resolution No. WB-17(7)/67 dated the 18th November, 1967, subject to modifications, if any, in terms of the award of a Tribunal or memorandum of settlement, under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or any other law for the time being in force, or the judgement of any court.

Explanation 2. — Classification of daily newspapers, news agencies, weeklies and other periodicals shall be as recommended by the former Wage Board, subject to modifications, if any, by the award of any Tribunal or memorandum of settlement, under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) or any other law for the time being in force or the judgement of any court.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph 1 or the report of the former Wage Board and the Resolution of the Government of India No. WB-17(7)/67 dated the 18th November, 1967, accepting the said report, the news agency known by the name and title "Samachar" shall be deemed to be a news agency of Class I and the said news agency shall pay in respect of non-journalist newspaper employees doing any work in, or in relation to, it interim rates of wages payable by a news agency of Class under the said paragraph.

3. Where any newspaper establishment has, either as a result of negotiations with its employees or otherwise, agreed to pay interim relief to non-journalist newspaper employees employed to do any work in, or in relation to, such newspaper establishment, and such interim relief is related to the basic wages or to the dearness allowance, it shall be permissible, in relation to any period after the publication of this notification in the Official Gazette, to adjust the amount of such relief against the increases in the rates of wages made under paragraph 1:

Provided that where the interim relief agreed to be paid by any newspaper establishment, in respect of any non-journalist newspaper employee, is in excess of the increase in the rates of wages made by paragraph 1, such interim relief agreed to by the newspaper establishment shall be paid in respect of such non-journalist newspaper employee and the non-journalist newspaper employee concerned shall not be entitled to the increase in rates of wages made by paragraph 1.
